How to claim travel expenses from the Edinburgh School of Economics

2 options are available. Which option you complete will depend on which bank account you claim on. Please include details of your home address used for the bank account.

- Complete option 1 for claiming through a non-UK bank account
- Complete option 2 for claiming on a UK bank account

Please complete one option and return to address below:

Hannah Chater
The University of Edinburgh
School of Economics
30 Buccleuch Place
Edinburgh
EH8 9JT

If you have any questions please e-mail: Hannah.Chater@ed.ac.uk

OPTION 1: If you are claiming on a non-UK bank account:

Name:

Institution:

Your home address:

List all expenses below for which you are claiming a reimbursement. The University can only accept original receipts or e-booking forms

Date of receipt	Details (e.g. train ticket, flight...)	Total cost as printed on the receipt

The university only reimburses via a bank transfer. Please provide the following information

Beneficiary account name (please note that this might be different from the beneficiary name, we need the full correct bank account holders name)

Beneficiary bank's name and address (Preferably exact address but if not available, specified city is sufficient in most European countries and American states. Payments to Asian countries i.e. India and China need exact address).

For EURO payments:

You must quote the International Bank Account Number (IBAN) and SWIFT Bank Identifier Code (BIC) for all cross-border intra-EU/EEA euro payment instructions.

The IBAN:(International Bank Account Number) consists of:

- 2 letters i.e. (country code) +
- 2 digits (check digits) +
- ? digits (bank branch/domestic routing code) +
- ? digits (account number)

IBAN:

Other currency payments (non-EURO)

For example

USD payment to US Account number (X digits- not specified)+ ABA Routing number (9 digits)

CAD payment to Canada Account number (7-12 digits)+ Transit number (4 digits /institution number/+ 5 digits /branch number/)

Please give full bank account number:

OPTION 2: If you are claiming against a UK bank account:

Name:

Institution:

Your home address:

List all expenses below for which you are claiming a reimbursement. The University can only accept original receipts or e-booking forms

Date of receipt	Details (e.g. train ticket, flight...)	Total cost as printed on the receipt

Complete the University of Edinburgh claims form on the next page and return with your original receipts to:
