

Using Administrative Data for Economic Research

Sponsored by SIRE – Scottish Institute for Research in Economics

Organiser: Dr Tanya Wilson, University of Stirling Management School. tanya.wilson@stir.ac.uk

Date: Thursday 12th May 2016

Time: 9.00am – 5.30pm

Venue: University of Stirling
Court Room

This one-day workshop will showcase opportunities for economic research that administrative data provides. The aim of the workshop is to promote wider engagement of economic researchers with the rich information available in administrative data, and to encourage innovative research that creates high-impact evidence.

Full event details available at: <http://tinyurl.com/hwoj3ex>

Confirmed Speakers include:

- Professor Ian Walker Lancaster University
- Professor Richard Harris Durham University
- Heather McCauley Scottish Government – Strategy Unit
- Professor Chris Dibben ADRC-S and Longitudinal Studies Centre Scotland
- Professor Alison Park CLOSER (Cohort and Longitudinal Enhancement Resources), UCL Institute of Education
- Professor Nick Bailey Urban Big Data Centre, Glasgow
- Dr Deborah Wiltshire UK Data Service
- Alastair McAlpine Scottish Index of Multiple Deprivation

Entry is free, but spaces are limited. Please register at <http://tinyurl.com/hy6x2yz>.

Travel bursaries, allocated on a first-come, first-served basis are available for Scottish based academics and PhD students. If you wish to be considered for funding please indicate this when registering.